The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 16, to Tuesday June 19, 1792.

Whitehall, June 19.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere and grateful Thanks for your Majeſty's conſtant, affectionate and vigilant Care of the happy Conſtitution of this Kingdom, expreſſed in your Royal Proclamation.

We are thoroughly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings of the Britiſh Conſtitution, conſiſting of King, Lords and Commons, the Value of which our Anceſtors and Ourſelves have experienced, and we gratefully acknowledge.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our diſlike of thoſe, who, with malicious Intention, circulate wicked and ſeditious Libels againſt the Government of this Country and it's happy Conſtitution, the great Source of our Felicity.

We humbly truſt in your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Juſtice for taking the moſt effectual Means to fruſtrate the Machinations of ſuch ill-diſpoſed Perſons, whether they operate by Cabal at home, or by miſchievous Correſpondence abroad.

And we aſſure your Majeſty, that, deeply penetrated with the moſt grateful Senſe of the Advantages enjoyed by all your Majeſty's Subjects, through all Ranks and Conditions, under our moſt happy Conſtitution and your Majeſty's truly mild and paternal Government, we will ſupport that Conſtitution and Government againſt all ſuch Attempts which may be made to ſhake, or any inſidious Deſigns which may be carried on to undermine, thoſe Foundations of the general Safety, Welfare and Happineſs of all your People.

And it is with infinite Satisfaction we can aſſure your Majeſty, that we have the fulleſt Grounds for believing, that your faithful Citizens of Briſtol, of all Ranks and Deſcriptions, cordially unite in theſe Sentiments, and in a Reſolution to ſupport good Order, and the Peace of Society.

[Delivered by the Members of the City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council aſſembled, preſent our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's unremitting Attention to the Security of the Britiſh Conſtitution, from the inſidious Attempts of ſeditious Deluſion.

Conſcious of the diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings which flow from a Syſtem of Government unrivalled in it's Excellence, we ceaſe not to applaud the Wiſdom of thoſe recent Meaſures, which protect the Public Tranquillity, and avert the Evils of deſtructive Faction.

In Aſſurance of our moſt vigorous Exertions to vindicate the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, vouchſafe to admit the Sincerity of our Wiſhes, that your Majeſty may long abide the zealous Guardian of our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, ever meeting the Affections of a loyal People, in the Repoſe of Peace and the Strength of Union.

Given under our Common Seal the 11th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Price One Shilling.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, together with the Inhabitants of your antient and loyal City of Cheſter, fully ſenſible of the Excellency of our preſent Conſtitution, Civil and Religious, and of the Bleſſings thence derived to us, and to the whole Kingdom, under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, beg Leave to teſtify our Abhorrence of all thoſe wild and ſeditious Doctrines, tending to the Subverſion of our happy Conſtitution, of all regular Submiſſion to eſtabliſhed Laws, and to the Deſtruction of the Peace and Happineſs of Society, which have occaſioned your Majeſty's late Royal Proclamation:

We are thankful to your Majeſty for this Inſtance of your Care and Attention to the Public Peace and Tranquillity, and with Sentiments of unfeigned Affection and Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, we beg Leave to offer our beſt Aſſiſtance, and with all Humility to aſſure your Majeſty that it is our ardent Wiſh to co-operate with you, in a Meaſure ſo evidently calculated to enſure the Welfare and Happineſs of your People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Citizens, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Lichfield.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Citizens, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Lichfield, conſcious of the various Bleſſings we derive from the excellent Form of Government under which we live, and of your Majeſty's paternal Attention to whatever may promote the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Aſſurances of our warm Attachment to your Perſon and Family, and of our Gratitude for the wiſe Meaſures pointed out, in your late Royal Proclamation, to diſcover thoſe inſidious Violators of the Laws, who, under Pretence of being the Friends of Liberty, have run into the Extreme of Licentiouſneſs, by diſſeminating Opinions, calculated to excite them to ſubvert a Conſtitution, which has long and deſervedly been the Pride of this Kingdom, and the Admiration of other States: And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of every Exertion in our Power to diſcountenance and diſcourage ſuch dangerous Opinions, and to ſuppreſs every Attempt to diſturb the Public Tranquillity.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, beg Leave humbly to addreſs your Majeſty, to expreſs our ſincere Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's Goodneſs in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing certain ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences, ſo dangerous to the Peace and Happineſs of your loyal Subjects, tending to ſubvert the good Government of the Kingdom, and, in the End, to endanger our invaluable Conſtitution.

Poſſeſſing Sentiments of Loyalty for our moſt gracious Soveriegn, and enjoying the many Privileges which we do, under the happy Conſtitution of this Country, we are diſpoſed, in common with your Majeſty's good Subjects, to diſcourage every Meaſure that may tend to deprive us of the inеſtimable Bleſſings we at preſent enjoy.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and loyal People is the ardent Wiſh of us your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

[Tranſmitted by Henry Blundell, Eſq; Mayor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Common Council of the Borough of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Common Council of the Borough of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty, for the Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative upon the preſent alarming Occaſion.

We behold, with the utmoſt Abhorrence, the Attempts which have been made to alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects from the preſent happy Conſtitution;

And we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that no Exertions on our Part ſhall be wanting to preſerve the Conſtitution of this Country, as by Law eſtabliſhed, in Church and State, or to ſupport the Honor and Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown of Great Britain.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Lancaſter, this 5th of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Preſton, in the County of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Preſton, in the County of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty thoſe ſincere and grateful Acknowledgements which are due from all dutiful and loyal Subjects for the late Inſtance of your Majeſty's parental Regard, manifeſted by your Royal and gracious Proclamation for repreſſing all ſeditious Meetings and Publications.

Happy in the Enjoyment of a free and envied Conſtitution, which your Majeſty's Royal Houſe was called to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms to protect, and truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's earneſt Deſire to preſerve that Conſtitution inviolate, we have viewed with Abhorrence the Acts and Proceedings of licentious and daring Men, militating as well againſt the Honour and Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown, as againſt thoſe conſtitutional Liberties of your Subjects, Religious and Civil, which they inſidiouſly profeſs to regard.

Situated in a County peculiarly diſtinguiſhed for it's Commerce and Manufactures, we have alſo lately ſeen, with a real Concern, Endeavours to diſſeminate among all Ranks of Men ſpeculative and alarming Opinions and Doctrines, deſtructive of every Principle of Induſtry, ſubverſive of the Peace and Order of Society, and of the Welfare and Happineſs of the Individual.

We moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that no Exertions of ours ſhall be wanting to give Effect to your your Royal Proclamation, and to ſecure that Peace and Tranquillity with which we are ſo eminently bleſſed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough the 8th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

T. Greaves, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and loyal Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Blackburn, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Minds amply convinced of the ſuperior Excellence of our Conſtitution, as eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution, and with Hearts deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the unexampled Bleſſings which we now enjoy, we humbly beg Leave to expreſs our unfeigned Gratitude for that Token of your Majeſty's Regard for your faithful and dutiful Subjects, ſo recently diſplayed in your Royal Proclamation for the Preſervation of the public Peace and Tranquillity,

When we reflect on the extreme Diſorders and Confuſion lately introduced into a neighbouring Kingdom by the Machinations of factious and ambitious Men, and view the Operation of ſimilar Means and Inſtruments to diſturb the good Order and Tranquillity of theſe Realms, we ſhould be undeſerving of our own Happineſs, and appear inſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Goodneſs, if we refuſed our grateful Tribute on the preſent Occaſion.

Regarding the Preſs as an uſeful Vehicle of Amuſement and Information, we cannot without Indignation ſee it perverted to the malignant Purpoſes of miſleading and infecting the Public Mind, and filling it with groundleſs Fears and Jealouſies of your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, which has uniformly had for it's Object the due Execution of the Laws, and the Security, Happineſs, and Proſperity of the Nation.

Under the Impreſſion of theſe Sentiments, we earneſtly beſeech the Almighty Ruler of the Univerſe to grant ſuch Aid and Support to your Majeſty's Counſels as will defeat the wicked Deſigns of the Enemies to your Majeſty's Government, and ſecure to your loyal Subjects a long, a very long, Continuance of all their Civil and Religious Rights.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Warrington, in the County of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, moſt humbly beg Permiſſion to approach your Majeſty with our grateful Thanks for the paternal Vigilance and Goodneſs your Majeſty has been pleaſed to manifeſt to your People, by your Royal Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences.

Happy in your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration of Government, and conſcious of the full Enjoyment of thoſe Rights and Liberties which were ſecured to the Subjects of this Realm by the wiſe and wholeſome Proviſions made at the Time of the glorious Revolution, and which have been ſtrengthened and confirmed by ſubſequent Laws, we ſhall, with Pleaſure, unite with the reſt of your loyal and faithful Subjects in Support of your Majeſty's gracious Endeavours to continue and preſerve our moſt excellent Conſtitution inviolate and unimpaired.

Zealouſly attached to that Conſtitution, the Admiration and Envy of all Europe, we behold, with Grief and Indignation, that venerable Fabrick attacked by wicked and deſigning Men; and not only Principles ſubverſive of all Law and Order openly avowed and induſtriouſly diſſeminated in this Country, but inſidious Attempts made to overturn and deſtroy that goodly Building, under the ſpecious, but falſe Pretence of Renovation and Improvement.

We, therefore, humbly intreat your Majeſty to believe, that in Duty to your Majeſty, to ourſelves, and our Poſterity, we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, diſcountenance and diſcourage all ſeditious Writings and Speeches tending to excite Tumult and Diſorder, and all criminal Correſpondences for effecting the like wicked Purpoſe, and by all lawful Means reſiſt every open and inſidious Attempt tending to overturn or endanger the happy Conſtitution of our Country, as by Law eſtabliſhed.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Perſon with Sentiments of the warmeſt Gratitude and Affection for the provident Wiſdom and paternal Care manifeſted by your Majeſty's late gracious Proclamation, iſſued at a Time when the ſeditious Writings of ſome, aided by the ſecret Machinations and criminal Correſpondences of others; Men, avowing Diſaffection to our excellent Conſtitution, threaten the Subverſion of all Order, and the Deſtruction of thoſe invaluable Privileges, which have juſtly rendered theſe Kingdoms the Envy and Admiration of the World.

When we reflect on the Succeſs of our Manufactures, the decided Superiority of our Commerce over that of other Nations, the uncontrouled Enjoyment of our Property, and the free Exerciſe of Civil and Religious Liberty, Bleſſings ſecured to us by your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we cannot help expreſſing our Surprize and Indignation, that there ſhould be found in your Majeſty's Dominions a Subject ſo inſenſible to the Bleſſings he enjoys, as to be capable of uttering a Murmur of Diſcontent, or a Wiſh for any Innovation, ſo particularly dangerous at the preſent Period.

That your Majeſty may long live the Father of your People, and the illuſtrious Guardian of thoſe wholeſome Proviſions eſtabliſhed at the Revolution; and that your People may ever be ſenſible of, and grateful for the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's benign Government, are the ſincere and hearty Wiſhes of your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of your Town of Kingſton upon Hull, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs our warmeſt and moſt grateful Acknowledgements for the additional Proof we have received of your Care and

and Attention to the Safety and Happineſs of your Subjects, in your late Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing wicked and ſeditious Writings and criminal Correſponces, ſo deſtructive of all Order and Civil Subordination.

Firmly and zealouſly attached to the genuine Conſtitution of this Country, as founded on the Glorious Revolution, and protected and ſtrengthened by your Majeſty and your Royal Anceſtors, we aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Reſolution to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to maintain the due Execution of the Laws, and to preſerve the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, by reſtraining all Proceedings that may tend to promote Riot and Tumult, and diſcouraging every unneceſſary and unſeaſonable Attempt at Innovation, and dangerous and ſpeculative Schemes of Improvement.

Signed by Order of Court,

Edward Codd, Town Clerk.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Stafford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Stafford, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our ſincere and hearty Thanks for the Wiſdom and paternal Care evinced by your Majeſty in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation.

We cannot ſufficiently teſtify our Abhorrence of the many dangerous and libellous Publications that have been induſtriouſly diſſeminated throughout the Kingdom, calculated to kindle the Flame of Sedition in the Minds of your Majeſty's loving Subjects, and endeavouring to diſſolve the ſacred Tie ſubſiſting between our King and his People. At the ſame Time we beg Leave to expreſs our firm and unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Auguſt Family, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall not be wanting in our Exertions for the Suppreſſion of all ſeditious Publications and unlawful Aſſemblies; and we pledge ourſelves to aid the Executive Power in the Maintenance of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, as by Law eſtabliſhed.

Given under our Hands, at Stafford aforeſaid, the 11th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the Town of Eaſt Retford, and it's Environs, in the County of Nottingham, beg Leave to expreſs our Gratitude for your Majeſty's moſt ſeaſonable Interpoſition, by your late Royal Proclamation, to check thoſe ſeditious Publications, which evil-minded Perſons have diſſeminated amongſt us, in order to diſturb our Minds, and render us diſaffected to our happy Conſtitution. And as a further Teſtimony of our Gratitude and Affection, we beg Leave to expreſs our Satisfaction in the preſent Eſtabliſhment both of Church and State; to declare our Abhorrence of every Meaſure tending to interrupt the Peace, Harmony and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Government; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our Readineſs to promote, to the utmoſt of our Power, the Objects of your Royal Proclamation.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People, and enjoy every Bleſſing, both public and private, is the ſincere Prayer of your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ipſwich, in Great Court aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMpreſſed with a juſt Senſe of the Wiſdom and Benevolence that have influenced your Majeſty to iſſue your Royal Proclamation againſt thoſe wicked and ſeditious Writings, which have of late been printed, and with a malevolent Induſtry diſperſed throughout your Majeſty's Dominions, with Intent to create unfonnded Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's faithful and affectionate Subjects, we, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ipſwich aforeſaid, humbly beg your Majeſty to accept our moſt grateful Thanks for this freſh Proof of your conſtant Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People.

We truſt the good Senſe of your Majeſty's Subjects will ever clearly diſtinguiſh between the Happineſs they ſo eminently poſſeſs, under Favor of Divine Providence, in the rational Liberty of that Syſtem of Government, which has been eſtabliſhed by our glorious and happy Conſtitution, and the certain Miſery attendant on that Anarchy and Confuſion, which are the baneful Effects of ſuch ſpeculative and impracticable Theory

We who know that the Dignity of the Crown, and a Reverence for the Laws, ſo well calculated to maintain our invaluable Liberties, are the true Source of the Happineſs of the Sovereign and of his People, beg to aſſure your Majeſty that we will diligently attend to the Commands of your Royal Proclamation, and that your Majeſty ſhall ever find your dutiful and loyal Subjects of your ancient Borough of Ipſwich ready, with their Fortunes and beſt Strength, to unite with your Majeſty's Endeavours to repel the wicked Attempts of all whoſe Aim is to ſubvert our moſt excellent Conſtitution, the Admiration and Envy of ſurrounding Nations.

We ſhall earneſtly offer up our Prayers that your Majeſty may long reign in Peace, to the Comfort and Proſperity of a free, happy, and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal this 7th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled, preſume to addreſs your Majeſty on your Majeſty's late moſt gracious Proclamation.

Under the fulleſt Conviction that the Bleſſings of our preſent happy Conſtitution, in Church and State, cannot be preſerved without a due Submiſſion to the Laws, and a ſtrict Attention to Order and Regularity, we look with Indignation and Contempt on all Endeavours to ſubſtitute Diſquiet and Jealouſies for the true Spirit of Liberty, and to depreciate the

Excellence

Excellence of our Conſtitution and Government; and we regard, with Gratitude and Reſpect, this additional Proof of your Majeſty's Attention to the Happineſs of your Majeſty's People. Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, and profeſſing the warmeſt Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, we pray, that, in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, we may long enjoy the Bleſſings of Peace and Tranquillity under the Guidance of your Majeſty's Councils.

Given under our Common Seal, this 7th Day of June, 1792.

Joſ. Neal, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Cheſterfield, in the County of Derby, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave humbly to offer our moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks for your Majeſty's Attention and affectionate Regard ſhewn to the Public Welfare by your Royal Proclamation; and at the ſame Time to expreſs our ſtedfaſt Attachment to your Majeſty, our Zeal for the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and our Hopes that no deluſive or impracticable Theories will prevent a Continuance of that Happineſs which we now enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

By Order,

Robert Waller, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Alban.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Alban, in the Town Hall of the ſaid Borough aſſembled, moſt humbly entreat your Majeſty to accept our grateful Thanks for the recent Mark of your Majeſty's Attention and Regard, ſhewn to us and the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, by your Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing all thoſe ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences, which have lately gone forth, evidently tending to ſow Diſcontent in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, and endanger the Conſtitution of this Kingdom.

We value and reſpect our excellent Conſtitution, as at this Time eſtabliſhed, and that Sort of Government which is ſo well calculated to perpetuate the internal Peace and Proſperity of the Community; and enjoying, as we do, the greateſt Happineſs and Security under your Majeſty's Government, we will, upon all Occaſions, unite with the reſt of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, in the firmeſt Support of your Majeſty's Endeavours to continue thoſe Bleſſings, by preſerving the Conſtitution from the Dangers of hazardous Experiments.

We beg your Majeſty will accept our warmeſt Wiſhes, that your Majeſty may long enjoy every Bleſſing which domeſtic Happineſs can confer; and that the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils may continue to cheriſh the Bleſſings of Peace at Home, and to procure Dignity and Reſpect Abroad.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiff, Burgeſſes, Clergy and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Plympton Earle.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiff, Burgeſſes, Clergy and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Plympton Earle, humbly intreat your Majeſty to accept our moſt grateful Thanks for your Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing all ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences.

We beg Leave, from our Hearts, to aſſure your Majeſty, that our utmoſt Endeavours ſhall be exerted in ſupporting that Conſtitution under which we at preſent enjoy ſuch incomparable Bleſſings.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Recorder, Juſtice, Maſters and Counſellors, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Totnes, in the County of Devon, impelled by Sentiments of the pureſt Loyalty and Affection towards your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and the moſt inviolable Attachment to the preſent Government and Conſtitution of this Country, think it our Duty to return your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Thanks for your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, for counteracting the Effects of ſeditious Publications diſperſed throughout this Kingdom, and criminal and wicked Correſpondences with Foreign Countries.

We conſider ſuch Meaſures to have a direct Tendency to withdraw from the Minds of the People a proper Senſe of Obedience to the Law, and of Attachment to the Civil and Religious Government of this Country: And we therefore think it our Duty not only to teſtify our utter Abhorrence of ſuch ſeditious Practices, but thus publickly to declare, that we will give every Support to that Conſtitution and Government from which we enjoy ſuch peculiar Bleſſings and Advantages: But at the ſame Time we beg to aſſure your Majeſty, that Peace and Tranquillity, and a due Subordination to the Laws, univerſally prevail in this Part of your Majeſty's Dominions; and as we have hitherto had no Cauſe to ſuſpect any Attempts of ſecret Malignancy, ſo we hope that neither the Fears or Suſpicions of it will diſturb the Happineſs of the Timid, or inſtigate thoſe badly diſpoſed to form Schemes inimical to our preſent Quiet and Repoſe.

Given under our Hands, in the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, this 13th Day of June, 1792.

[Delivered by Mr. Adams, one of the Aldermen of the ſaid Borough.]

To His Moſt Sacred Majeſty GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Peace Officers and Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Aileſbury, in the County of Buckingham, ever ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Solicitude for the Tranquillity of the Kingdom, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Royal Preſence with the livelieſt Sentiments of Gratitude Gratitude for your Majeſty's late ſolemn and ſeaſonable Proclamation, for the Suppreſſion of Sedition and Hereſy, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that in our ſeveral Vocations every dutiful Exertion ſhall be made to diſcover and puniſh all ſuch as ſhall fail in their Allegiance to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, and more eſpecially thoſe who, enjoying the genial Influence of our happy Eſtabliſhment, ſhall dare to alienate your Subjects from their Duty, by the ſpeaking or publiſhing Doctrines inſinuating or inculcating Diſſatisfaction or Diſtruſt at the Meaſures of your Majeſty's Council, or the Wiſdom and Prudence of your Parliament.

Truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, we rejoice in every Opportunity in which we can teſtify our Zeal for your Royal Perſon and Family, by a Renewal of that Fidelity and Attachment, for which this your ancient Borough is ſo anxious, and ſo proud to be diſtinguiſhed.

That your Majeſty may long live to experience our Loyalty and Attachment is the fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Signed at the Requeſt, and in the Name of the Peace Officers and Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough, aſſembled in the Shire Hall there, (purſuant to public Notice) this 6th Day of June, 1792.

Thomas Lloyd, Chairman.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Borough of Ayr.

Maſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of your ancient Borough of Ayr, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of the warmeſt Gratitude for that wiſe, paternal and Conſtitutional Exertion of your Royal Prerogative, manifeſted in your Proclamation for ſuppreſſing ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences.

Firmly attached to the Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms, as eſtabliſhed by the Glorious Revolution, we have obſerved, with Horror and Indignation, thoſe wicked Attempts of abandoned and deſigning Men, who, by holding out deluſive and impracticable Theories of Reform from imaginary Grievances, are endeavouring to miſlead the unwary and betray the innocent into Meaſures ſubverſive of all Order and good Government. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, endeavour to diſcover the Authors and Printers of ſuch Writings, and to ſuppreſs all Riots, Tumults and Diſorders which may be attempted within our Limits; and that we will at all Times be ready to defend, with our Lives and Properties, the happy Conſtitution of Government, Civil and Religious, which we at preſent enjoy.

Permit us at the ſame Time to felicitate your Majeſty on thoſe recent and unequivocal Teſtimonies, which your Royal Proclamation has drawn forth, to the Purity of your Majeſty's Intentions, and the unimpaired Excellence of our admirable Conſtitution, which, however Men's Sentiments may vary in the Diſcuſſion of Political Topics of leſs Moment, have, on the preſent intereſting Occaſion, commanded the Approbation of the Great and Good of all Parties,

May your Majeſty long reign, undiſturbed, over a free, happy and loyal People, and may the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms be ſwayed by the Members of your Illuſtrious Houſe to the lateſt Ages.

Signed in our Preſence, by our Appointment,

John Murdoch, Provoſt.

Ayr, June 11, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by John Murdoch, Eſq; Provoſt.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled, deſire Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Gratitude for your Majeſty's late ſeaſonable Proclamation for ſuppreſſing ſeditious Writings.

The Excellency of our valuable and well-poiſed Conſtitution ſhews itſelf at the preſent Moment in the moſt engaging and venerable Light: While other Countries are involved in Diſtreſs and Confuſion, we poſſeſs Opulence, Freedom and Peace.

We ſhould, therefore, be greatly wanting to ourſelves, did we heſitate, in our preſent happy Circumſtances firmly to diſapprove of all Attempts to tamper with a Syſtem under which we enjoy ſo great a Portion of Good.

For this weighty Reaſon we cordially unite with others of your Majeſty's Subjects in profeſſing our unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and to that ſalutary Form of Government which is now eſtabliſhed in this Kingdom.

Given under our Common Seal the 11th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Maſters or Counſellors, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Totnes, in the Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Maſters or Counſellors, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Totnes, beg Leave to expreſs our moſt humble and grateful Acknowledgements of your Majeſty's kind and paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects, manifeſted by your late Royal Proclamation for preventing and ſuppreſſing ſeditious and inflammatory Publications.

Deeply ſenſible as we are that real Liberty can only exiſt under the Protection of Law, and the Authority of regular Government, and that every Act or Endeavour of Individuals or Societies of Men, which tends to diſſeminate Diſcord or Diſaffection among your Majeſty's Subjects, deſerves our ſtrongeſt Cenſure and Diſapprobation; and, convinced of the various Evils and Calamities which muſt ever attend a divided and diſtracted Nation, we conſider it our moſt indiſpenſable Duty to unite in ſupporting, to the utmoſt of our Power, our preſent happy Conſtitution, and in preſerving and perpetuating the many great and and invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

Long may your Majeſty reign over a happy and united People, bleſt with an uninterrupted Continuance of Peace and Proſperity; a People who love and eſteem your Majeſty, as much as they reſpect and revere your publick Virtues as a King.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly intreat your Majeſty to receive our unfeigned Thanks, as a due Senſe of our Gratitude for the Wiſdom and Goodneſs evinced by your Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing thoſe deluſive Theories and criminal Correſpondences, whether by unconſtitutional Aſſociations or Individuals, which are inconſiſtent with the Duties of all Civil Societies.

We, your faithful Subjects, conceive it, under the preſent Circumſtances, the indiſpenſable Duty of all good Subjects to diſcourage and ſubvert every Attempt to ſap the excellent Form of our Government, which we and the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects enjoy with ſo much National Happineſs and Proſperity under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, and your Majeſty's conſtant Solicitude for the Welfare and Felicity of your People, we duly conſider the ineſtimable Value of thoſe Bleſſings, and think it incumbent on us to unite, to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Determination to ſupport your Majeſty's Endeavours for preſerving our unequalled Conſtitution from every Danger.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Town and County, the 11th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

John Leſter, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of Beverley in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of your Town of Beverley in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled, ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, founded on the Conſtitution formed at the Glorious Revolution, and ſtrengthening and confirming that happy Eſtabliſhment, moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs our marmeſt Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing all libelous and ſeditious Writings and criminal Correſpondences, ſo contrary to Order and good Government.

We feel ourſelves happy in the full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights, and are unwilling to hazard the Loſs of theſe valuable Bleſſings, by indulging a vain Hope of Advantages by ſpeculative Improvements of a Conſtitution, which already affords us all the real and ſolid Good that was ever derived from any human Inſtitution.

Permit us, therefore, to aſſure your Majeſty of our beſt Endeavours to repreſs all Proceedings that may have a Tendency to promote Tumult or Riot, or any Diſorder endangering the Peace or Proſperity of your Majeſty's Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, this 11th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

Tho. Clubley, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace and Freeholders of the County of Haddington.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace and Freeholders of the County of Haddington, have taken under our ſerious Conſideration your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, warning your People againſt the baneful Influence of certain wicked and ſeditious Writings now in Circulation through this Kingdom, and againſt a Correſpondence with Foreign Parts, which has for it's Object to unhinge and deſtroy the Principles of our Conſtitution: And while we, with one Voice, concur in gratefully thanking your Majeſty for this Mark of your paternal and anxious Care for the Good of your People, we ſee, with Indignation and deep Regret, that any of our Fellow Citizens ſhould be ſo loſt to every Senſe of the Duty they owe to God and to their Country, as to attempt to ſtir up Riot and Sedition in the Land by ſuch pernicious Practices.

We truſt, however, they are few in Number, and, firmly attached as we are to the Principles of our happy Conſtitutional Government, as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, and confirmed by the Act of Settlement upon your illuſtrious Houſe, we beg beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, to the utmoſt of our Power, we ſhall endeavour, as Magiſtrates, by our Precept and as Individuals by our Examples, to teach our Fellow Citizens, that the only Way to preſerve the Happineſs of the Whole is for every Man, in his Station, to reverence and obey the Laws, by which alone we exiſt a free and a happy People.

Signed, by Appointment of the Meeting, at Haddington, this 11th Day of June, 1792 Years.

Tweeddale, Præſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Fife.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Fife, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our humble and hearty Thanks for the Proclamation, which your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom, has lately iſſued, for preventing the Circulation of wicked and ſeditious Writings.

Impreſſed with a deep Senſe of the Excellence of our happy Conſtitution, and of the Security which it confers upon all Orders of Men, we have beheld with Indignation the Attempts which have been made to raiſe groundleſs Diſcontents in the Minds of your loyal Subjects; and we beg Leave, with one

one Heart and one Voice, to assure your Majest that, in our respective Stations and Situations, e shall endeavour, to the utmost of our Power, o promote the important Objects of your Majest s gracious Proclamation, by exerting all our Influence in Opposition to every Measure, which may be calculated to disturb the Tranquillity and Happiness of the Nation.

We offer our earnest and fervent Prayers, that it may please Almighty God long to preserve your Majesty's precious and invaluable Life; that there never may be wanting a Prince of your illustrious House, to watch with the same unremitting Care over the British Constitution: And that the same Blessings which we now enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government may in every succeeding Age descend to our Posterity.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by Craufurd, Præses.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Colonel Wemyss, Representative in Parliament for the County of Fife.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, Gentle n, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Tow . nd Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to testify our warm and grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal and constant Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and for the recent Instance of it, which has been given by issuing your Royal Proclamation for suppressing those seditious Publications, which have been of late so industriously circulated, and which may be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

We also beg Leave to express our highest Veneration for the Constitution of this Kingdom, as established by the Glorious Revolution, and are truly sensible of the many Advantages which, under the Government of your Majesty and your Illustrious Ancestors, have been derived from legal and well-regulated Freedom: And we deem it, under the present Circumstances, the peculiar Duty of every good and loyal Subject to discourage and counteract every Attempt against Public Order and Tranquility.

Whitehall, June 19.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, has been presented to the King by Mr. Burton, the Recorder of that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with a Tender of our unfeigned and most grateful Thanks for your Majesty's most salutary and seasonable Proclamation, being a recent and incontestable Proof, added to the many others, of your Majesty's anxious and unwearied Solicitude for the Happiness, Peace and Prosperity of all your Majesty's Subjects.

We cannot but view with a Concern, mixed with Abhorrence, the Propagation of Principles and Opinions subversive of all Order, Subordination and good Government, especially as, through the Protection of Divine Providence, we are in the actual and experimental Enjoyment of every Blessing that can result from a free and well-regulated Constitution, and under which we have attained a Degree of Prosperity unequalled by any other Nation, as well as unexampled at any antecedent Period of British History.

Impressed with these Sentiments, Sentiments of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Family, of Veneration and Attachment to the established Government in Church and State, we feel it our bounden Duty to co-operate, as far as in us lies, with your Majesty's gracious Views, manifested in the late Proclamation, by guarding against and counteracting all Attempts to mislead and unsettle the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and so to shake their Confidence in the existing Government, and to substitute visionary Theories in the Room of our present glorious and unparalleled Constitution.

Given under our Common Seal, the 11th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.
